FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

As I have not heard of any meeting for tomorrow night, I would invite any of you who are interested in a Zoom meeting to join me at 7:00 PM tomorrow. If you are interested, send me a response to dkrausman@msn.com and I will send you a Zoom link. Please respond by 3:00 PM tomorrow afternoon and also note that the meeting time will be 7:00 PM, not 7:30 PM.

Until next time keep the trains rolling.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

On page 2, please a message from Pete Gehret in regards some Colorado Railroad Maps

Denny,

I have more info on the free maps. There are six of them and they are reproductions but of good quality and easy to read. They were found in Denver when a daughter was cleaning out her late father's effects. They range from 1891 to 1982. The list: 1) Denver, CO Carlson Map Company, downtown Denver 1913. 2) Denver Union Terminal map, Union Pacific System, Denver Shops, 1891. 3) City and County of Denver, Beeler's Official Map, 1913, including Adams County street and rail map. 4) Location of various Railroads Denver area, 1929, including D&RG, C&S, ATSF, CB&Q and D&SL. 5) Utah Junction in 1981, C&S, including historical photos and 6) Denver area railroads (no date given) with detail Union Station including switch and signal locations. The man who is donating these maps is Jim Shea. He lives in Connecticut and his phone numbers are: (203) 294-9834-home and (203) 500-4919 (cell). If anyone is interested, he may call Jim directly or me at (303) 916-8355 or pag125@comcast.net.

Thanks, Pete
